

LET'S TALK CREATION

Episode 144: Cambridge Answers to Your Questions

Paul and Todd are together at the offices of Biblical Creation Trust in Cambridge, England, and this time, they're answering YOUR questions! How are natural selection and adaptation related to the creation model? What about the Acambara figurines and the Ica stones? Can you explain protein evolution? What about that Flood/post-Flood boundary? What does Ebu Gogo have to do with creation? What even is Ebu Gogo? We try to answer these questions and more in this oversized episode. Thanks for sending in your interesting questions. Keep them coming, and we'll do some more Q&A episodes in the future!
