Episode 146: Paul & Todd Explore the Ice Age!

On the east coast of England, Todd and Paul continue their travels down the coast. This time, they're chasing glaciers! No, they're not confused, they're looking for evidence of the ice age that covered that part of the world in glaciers long ago. These weren't just little glaciers either. This ice left behind some astounding debris, and Paul and Todd are there to see it! All that, and Todd gets to talk about human origins AGAIN. Check it out in this latest episode!
